INTRODUCTORY

We are a 5 years old software house based on 20 years commercial experience. The challenges we faced made us stronger. As a contracting company, we welcome all type of new technologies and challenges as we are still open to learn.

Because of our expertise in process analysis and business analysis background, we love to understand and plan the requirements for high level complexity.

We have wide range of project experiences, including both server and client-side solutions (web or mobile).

We worked for various corporate and personal websites, large ERP-CRM and MRP projects as contractors, or consultants using various technologies since 1999.

Ancyra Solutions Limited is helping to keep its clients business growing since 2014.

We can work as a contractor (outside IR35) or we can finalise a project on our own.
